Catarrh
IS a blood disease. Until the poison is expelled from the system, there can be no cure for this loathsome and dangerous malady. Therefore, the only effective treatment is a thorough course of Ayer's Sarsaparilla—the best of all blood purifiers. The sooner you begin the better; delay is dangerous.

"I was troubled with catarrh for over two years. I tried various remedies, and was treated by a number of physicians, but received no benefit until I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. A few bottles of this medicine cured me of this troublesome complaint and completely restored my health."—Jesse M. Boggs, Holman's Mills, N. C.

"When Ayer's Sarsaparilla was recommended to me for catarrh, I was inclined to doubt its efficacy. Having tried so many remedies, with little benefit, I had no faith that anything would cure me. I became emaciated from loss of appetite and impaired digestion. I had nearly lost the sense of smell, and my system was badly deranged. I was about discouraged, when a friend urged me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and referred me to persons whom it had cured of catarrh. After taking half a dozen bottles of this medicine, I am convinced that the only sure way of treating this obstinate disease is through the blood."—Charles H. Maloney, 113 River st., Lowell, Mass.

BROOKLYN, Conn., May 5, '90.
DR. B. J. KENDALL CO.:
Sirs:—Last Summer I cured a Curb upon my horse with your celebrated Kendall's Spavin Cure and it was the best job I ever saw done. I have a dozen empty bottles, having used it with perfect success, curing every thing I tried it on. My neighbor had a horse with a very bad Spavin that made him lame. He asked me how to cure it. I recommended Kendall's Spavin Cure. He cured the Spavin in just three weeks.
Yours respectfully, WOLCOTT WITTER.

MONROE, La., May 8, '90.
DR. B. J. KENDALL CO.,
Gents:—I think it my duty to render you my thanks for your far famed Kendall's Spavin Cure. I had a four year old filly which I prized very highly. She had a very severe swollen leg. I tried about eight different kinds of medicines which did no good. I purchased a bottle of your Kendall's Spavin Cure which cured her in four days.
I remain yours, MARION DOWDEN.

FIVE THOUSAND CHEERS.

That Was New York's Greeting to the Nationalists.

SHE ALSO CONTRIBUTES $37,000.

Its Course Toward Ireland Termed "a Denial of Natural Rights, a Contempt for Human Liberty and a Blot on the Civilization of the Age."

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—A rousing reception was given Messrs. Dillon and O'Brien at the Metropolitan Opera house last evening.

The following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we, the citizens of the city of New York, in mass meeting assembled at the Metropolitan Opera house this 10th day of November, extend a hearty and cordial greeting to the representatives of the Irish people, John Dillon, William O'Brien, T. D. Sullivan, T. P. O'Connor, Timothy Harrington and T. P. Gill.

Resolved, That recognizing them as the duly accredited voice of the Irish people, solemnly and deliberately chosen to speak in their behalf, we commend their mission to every lover of liberty throughout the land.

A Contempt for Human Liberty.

Resolved, That, as citizens of this free republic, animated by the love for human liberty and a respect for human rights, which we have imbibed from the spirit of our glorious institutions under the protecting aegis of our constitution, anxious in common with all mankind for the success of justice in the struggle against human oppression everywhere, we unreservedly condemn the policy of the Tory government of Great Britain toward Ireland as a denial of natural rights, a contempt for human liberty and a blot on the civilization of the age.

Godspeed to Gladstone and Parnell.

Resolved, That we view with unfeigned delight the attitude of the English people as evidenced in the recent by-elections, and we applaud their evident determination to reject and repudiate at the earliest opportunity the government which misrepresents them by its universally condemned policy of hatred and oppression toward the Irish people.

Resolved, That, believing home rule—the granting of local self government—is the only guarantee of peace to England and prosperity to Ireland, we bid godspeed to William E. Gladstone and Charles Stewart Parnell in their endeavors to settle on lines of equity and justice the problem that centuries of force have utterly failed to solve; and we pledge them our active, earnest, unfaltering support until the struggle is over and the battle won.

John Dillon's Speech.

Governor Hill officiated as chairman of the meeting. John Dillon spoke as follows:

"The cause for which I make this appeal to the public of America is one which must recommend itself to every free citizen of America. It is the claim of the Irish people to make their own laws as a claim to liberty and common humanity. They claim those rights and privileges which have made this country what it is today. We have been reduced in our population from 8,000,000 to 4,500,000. No money has been spared to crush Ireland. That being the case, is there any man who will say that the Irishman is not justified in looking to every free people under the sun for liberty. In 1885 when 103 Irish members were sent to parliament eighty-five of them were sent to support our cause, and now the English government insists on governing our country in the face of opposition of these eighty-five men. They will deny those rights for which your fathers fought. They would reduce the country to the condition of Russia and place her under the rule of landlords. (Hisses and howls.)

Forty Thousand Bayonets Needed.

"They will govern Ireland with a system that requires 40,000 bayonets to hold it in subjection. Our population is less than that of New York state, and yet it takes 40,000 men to keep the people quiet, and I am proud of the Irish people for it. They do all that because the Irish people cannot rule themselves. But has the government ruled Ireland in a manner that they should say we cannot rule ourselves? They have had the rule for eighty-six years but they have put down with a strong hand every effort made to emancipate her people. I challenge any nation in history to produce such a history as ours has been. They have reduced the masses to rags and starvation. Where in other countries there have been increases in population by jumps and bounds in our country the homes have been deserted, and this has been the work of garrisons in Ireland. All the world expects regularly an Irish famine. Our people never know what comfort is. Their food is taken from them, and this year $100,000 worth of provisions will be shipped out of Ireland. Isn't this disgraceful when the people are starving?

Not a Man for Sale.

"We can say for the defense of our party that during the last ten years England has not been able to buy any one of our number. In 1880 we undertook to make an effort to free our people, and today we have placed in the hands of an unarmed people a mighty power. We have made them more than a match for Balfour and his men. For ten years we have been struggling, and twenty-five of our men have been persecuted and imprisoned, but not one of them has committed an act for which he would be imprisoned in one of your states. We have been subjected to a police system, the like of which is not to be found on this earth.

Almost a Policeman Apiece.

"We will soon have a policeman to every citizen. When I am at home in Ireland I am never without an escort, for my every step is watched. I thank you for all that you have done. I for my part will never make an appeal for famine relief. I do appeal that the people will stand by us in this struggle—a struggle to destroy that perennial source of famine and set up in the Dublin castle a government that will represent Ireland and that will chase from our shores that specter of famine and degradation."

The Shadow of the Famine.

William O'Brien next spoke. After paying a tribute to America's generosity, he said: "In a few months the vast masses will be standing in the shadow of a famine at which Mr. Balfour has jeered. We come for a fighting fund. The landlords' blight and the Dublin castle blight is worse than any famine blight. The old country of Ireland is crushed under wheels of oppression. We have said we would never beg again for a famine. We are fighting for our people, and it should be the pride of every Irishman to see that we are not defeated. We have challenged Mr. Balfour to name any instance in which he has been successful against us, although he has persecuted us at every step."

A Collection of $37,000.

A collection was then taken for the cause. It was announced that the receipts of the doors were $4,000. Subscriptions were called for, and they swelled the total receipts of the evening to about $37,000. The following were some of the largest subscriptions: Eugene Kelly, $1,000; Joseph J. O'Donoghue, $1,000; Maj. John Byrnes, $1,000; W. R. Grace, $1,000; Mayor Grant, $1,000; Henry McAleenan, $1,000; Henry D. Purroy, $500; W. Bourke Cockran, $500; Governor Hill, $100; Col. W. L. Brown, $1,000.

Birchall's Nerve Still Good.

WOODSTOCK, Ont., Nov. 11.—Birchall is growing despondent and appears to be anxious for the fatal day. Of late his sleep has not been sound, and his face shows signs of the awful mental strain which he has to bear. He frequently talks of his death, and says he regrets the possibility that the doctors will cut him in their post-mortem examination. He is anxious that his remains be securely entombed in a brick vault, lest they be stolen by the medical profession, whom he describes as rubbing their hands in anxious ecstacy to lay hold of him after he is dead and carve him up. He laughs at those who think he would attempt to cheat the gallows, and says he is not of the stuff that suicides are made of.

To Contest Two Seats.

WATERBURY, Conn., Nov. 10.—Naugatuck elected two representatives this year, the recent census showing a population of over 500. The seats of the two Democrats elected will be contested. The Republicans claim that the increased population was not officially announced, and the election is consequently illegal. Leading Democrats hold that the election was legal, Bristol having done the same thing in 1880 without opposition and without official announcement.

MAJ. M'KINLEY DEFEATED.

John G. Warwick, His Opponent, Is Elected by a Small Majority.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 6.—The fight in McKinley's district was a very close one, but the father of the tariff bill suffered defeat. The Republican state committee conceded the election of McKinley's opponent, John G. Warwick, by 147. McKinley's great fight at Canton against such great odds, resulted in his overcoming 2,700 of the district's regular Democratic majority, but he still lacked about 150 votes of being victorious. The official count may slightly change these figures, but not enough to elect the major. Ex-Governor Foster was also defeated by a small majority. Calvin S. Brice claims that fourteen Democratic congressmen have been elected, a gain of nine. These figures are undoubtedly correct. The plurality of D. J. Ryan, the Republican candidate for secretary of state, will be about 15,129.

J. G. WARWICK.

The Result in New Jersey.

JERSEY CITY, Nov. 6.—The congressmen elected in this state are as follows: First district, C. A. Bergen, Rep.; Second, James Buchanan, Rep.; Third, J. A. Geissenheimer, Dem.; Fourth, Samuel Fowler, Dem.; Fifth, C. A. Cadmus, Dem.; Sixth, Thomas Dunn English, Dem.; Seventh, Edward F. McDonald, Dem.

The next state senate will stand: Democrats, 13; Republicans, 7; Independent Democrat, 1. The assembly will stand: Democrats, 39; Republicans, 21. Prominent politicians attribute the great Democratic victory to the McKinley and Lodge bills. The election passed off quietly. Some arrests for bribery are threatened.

Sure Defeat for Senator Ingalls.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 7.—There is now but little doubt that the next Kansas legislature on joint ballot will be under the control of the Farmers' Alliance and Democrats combined, and possibly the alliance alone will have a working majority. This means sure defeat for Senator Ingalls. The Republicans and the alliance men are claiming a victory in the gubernatorial contest, but so far Willetts, Alliance, is in the lead. In the First district the official count will be necessary to determine whether Moonlight, Dem., or Broderick, Rep., is elected. The remaining six congressmen were elected by the alliance.

Expelled for Alleged Treachery.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 11.—The Democratic city committee, at a meeting last night, expelled Peter Monroe and William McMullen, the Democratic leaders in the Third and Fourth wards, for alleged treachery to the party at the recent election. These wards are Democratic strongholds, but the Fourth ward, which ordinarily gives a Democratic majority of 1,800, gave only 55 plurality for Pattison. McMullen is charged with being responsible for this discrepancy. Monroe is said to have exerted the same influence in the Third ward.

Delamater Defeated in Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 6.—Complete but unofficial returns from every county in the state give Pattison, Dem., for governor, a plurality of 16,299 over Delamater, Rep. The Republican candidates for lieutenant governor and secretary of internal affairs, Messrs. Watres and Stewart, are no doubt elected.

It is estimated that at least 50,000 Republicans voted for Pattison. This result in a state that gave Harrison 80,000 majority, showing a change of 100,000 votes, is certainly one of the most remarkable features in this altogether remarkable election.

Farewell to Senator Farewell.

SPRINGFIELD, Ills., Nov. 7.—Gen. Palmer last evening received a telegram from Carthage saying that Edwards and Myers, two Democrats, are shown by the official count to have been elected to the legislature. Gen. Palmer, on reading this dispatch said, "This makes 103 Democrats on joint ballot, a majority of 1." The 103, the general explained, included the F. M. B. A. men, all three of whom, he claimed, were pledged to his support on the ballot for United States senator. This means the non-return of Senator Farewell, Rep.

Two Close State Contests.

HARTFORD, Conn., Nov. 8.—An apparent error in the official return from Milford gives Merwin, Rep., 18 additional votes, reducing Morris' apparent majority to 27. There are 36 Prohibition votes in Waterbury and 126 Republican votes in Bridgeport not reckoned in these figures, which, if counted, leave Morris in a minority.

CONCORD, N. H., Nov. 8.—All the towns in the state except two give Tuttle, Rep., for governor, 42,545; Amsden, Dem., 42,378; Fletcher, Pro., 1,289.

Stewart Defeats Craig.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 11. — The official count of Allegheny county just completed shows a majority for Stewart, Rep., for congress, over Craig, Dem., of 2,661. This gives Stewart a majority of 34 in the district (the Twenty-fourth) over Craig, whose election has heretofore been claimed. The district in 1888 gave Ray, Rep., 4,338 majority. The delegation from the state in the next congress will consist of 18 Republicans and 10 Democrats, a democratic gain of 3.

The Democratic Victory in Massachusetts.

BOSTON, Nov. 6.—With only half a dozen towns to hear from in Massachusetts, Russell, Dem., for governor, is leading by 10,000 votes. The total vote at this writing is: Blackmer, 13,199; Brackett, 130,527; Russell, 141,191.

Democrats Win in New York.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Tammany made a clean sweep in New York, electing Mayor Grant and the entire Democratic ticket. The Democrats have a majority of at least four in the New York legislature.

Democratic Congressional Majority 141.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The figures thus far clearly show a Democratic majority in the house of 141. The Tribune concedes from 120 to 130.

How New Hampshire Stands.

CONCORD, N. H., Nov. 7.—Returns from all but nine small towns give Tuttle, Rep., for governor, 40,586; Amsden, Dem., 40,000; Fletcher, Pro., 1,272.

Cannon Defeated in Illinois.

CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—Congressman Cannon concedes his defeat. He says Bussey's majority will be about 300.

Succi's Strange Fast.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—Today is the sixth day of Succi's fast. He is stronger than ever, but has lost about fourteen pounds. Yesterday, for the first time, he took eighteen drops of his elixir.

Horseman Balch's Suicide.

BOSTON, Nov. 11.—Wesley P. Balch, the well known horseman, committed suicide last evening by shooting himself with a revolver in his office in the Commonwealth building. Financial difficulties caused the act.

Thomas and Henry Harper have departed from New York, leaving large indebtedness. They claimed to have invented a machine which would duplicate automatically the work of a hand painter on china.

Arrests for election frauds are ordered in Philadelphia, and there is a fugacious inclination on the part of crooked politicians.

Politicians are divided on the New York senatorship. Shrewd reasoners argue that neither Mr. Cleveland nor Governor Hill could take it, and some think a New York city man may get it, though there are believers in Smith M. Weed's chances.

Loris M. Nuttmin, of Jersey City, has been appointed a cadet to West Point with Harold W. Armstrong, of Montclair, N. J., as alternate.

The president has pardoned Henry H. Curtis, of New Jersey, convicted of desertion from the United States army.

Col. Judson, Governor Hill's military secretary, was married Nov. 6 to Miss Marion E. Lathrop. The governor attended the reception. His gift to the bride was a costly watch and chain. The watch chain is studded with diamonds.

In the Vermont legislature a bill compelling corporations to pay their employes weekly was killed by a vote of 96 to 125; also a bill exempting soldiers from the payment of poll tax.

Black diphtheria is prevailing in an epidemic form at Cygnet, O. The schools are all closed and business is practically suspended. A number of deaths have occurred and many persons are leaving the place.

The annual report of Maj. Gen. Schofield recommends a large addition to our fleet and shore batteries for coast defense.

Three bodies have been taken from the wrecks of the Vizcaya and the Cornelius Hargraves and brought to New York.

The Getty house (Yonkers) suicide was evidently a Boston tailor in hard luck. Speculator Perrin H. Sumner has received a remarkable letter signed "J. H. Edgar."

Col. Thomas B. Price, president of the Gazette Printing company, of Sedalia, Mo., was shot and mortally wounded by Judge John Higgins, of Pitts county court. An election quarrel caused the shooting.

David H. Greever, a well known cattle man, was shot and fatally wounded at Kansas City by Charles Clifford, an ex-pugilist from San Francisco.

Martin Galbraith, aged 14, was shot in the hand by Harry Bundy, colored, also aged 14, at Plainfield, N. J., because he said he was a Democrat.

The barn of William Du Pont, president of the big powder making concern at Wilmington, Del., was destroyed by an incendiary fire. Apparently the Du Ponts are being pursued by some malignant enemy, as this is the fourth attempt to injure them within a year.

An aged German woman, who was killed by an electric car in St. Paul, and seemed to be very poor, was discovered to be a miser, Mrs. Anna Klotz, who is worth $200,000.

At Port Royal, Pa., a stock train crashed through and wrecked the signal tower. The operator escaped by jumping, but the fireman of the train, George Longacre, was killed.

Marion C. Jones, a beautiful girl, of Englewood, Ills., took chloroform in a Chicago hospital in order that a surgeon might remove a small mole on her right cheek, failed to recover and died in convulsions.

The body of Charles Suder was found in a small stream at Duncansville, near Altoona, Pa., with seven stab wounds in the throat, any one of which would have caused death.

A Chattanooga paper publishes a statement that Secretary Tracy will be made a justice of the supreme court, and that Congressman H. Clay Evans will be appointed secretary of the navy.

WHAT MRS. FREMONT WANTS.

Not Charity, but Justice from the United States Government.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—The reports that Mrs. Jessie Benton Fremont, widow of Gen. John C. Fremont, was in straitened circumstances brought forth political sympathy and subscriptions for her relief. Mrs. Fremont, while feeling grateful for the kindness, refused any assistance that would place her before the public in the position of seeking charity. She asks only the restoration of her home which she purchased with money left her by her father, and which she claims the government confiscated in San Francisco in 1862 under the pretext that it was needed during the late war for the defense of the harbor of that city, and for which the government neither pays rent nor offers to restore to her.

A letter from Mrs. Fremont, dated Los Angeles, was received a few days ago by Col. Charles De Arnaug, of this city, who was closely connected with Gen. Fremont during his campaign in Missouri. In it she writes concerning recently published statements about her poverty: "With the pension I will have rest of mind. My sons and friends here have not let us had any trouble that money could help; but until the pension comes in I am dependent on them. It is unjust to them to say that we were in want, but when newspapers get hold of part of a truth they whirl it out of all shape. We have real friends here, women and men."

PRESIDENTIAL GOSSIP.

Democrats Looking Forward Eagerly Towards the Campaign of 1892.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—With the return of members of congress to the city, the contest for the speakership of the next house begins to assume local interest and importance. The fight for the position will be waged warmly during the coming winter, and will undoubtedly have its effect even on the deliberations of the present house of representatives. The most interesting phase of the discussion of the subject at this time is the question of its relation to the contest for the Democratic nomination for the presidency in 1892.

One of the current bits of gossip is that an alliance may be formed between the east and the west in the speakership contest with a view to an arrangement for the presidential nomination. Prominent Democrats now in the city say that the Democratic strength of New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Maryland, West Virginia, part of Pennsylvania and part of Virginia, can be thrown for a western candidate for the speakership in exchange for western votes for an eastern candidate for the presidential nomination. Governor Abbett, of New Jersey; ex-Governor Black, of Pennsylvania; Senator Barbour, of Virginia, and Senator Gorman, of Maryland, are counted as favorable to such an alliance.

In this combination, the candidates for the presidency most spoken of are Whitney and Hill, while it is current gossip that the friends of Cleveland and Pattison in the east may form an alliance for the election of a southern candidate for speaker in exchange for southern votes in the Democratic national convention.

SAVED FROM A SWINDLER.

Mrs. Conrad Narrowly Escaped Buying $3,000 Worth of "Green Goods."

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Mrs. Ann Elizabeth Conrad, of Brockville, Bracken county, Ky., and Walter Willard, alias "Big Walter," a noted swindler whose picture is in the rogues' gallery, were arrested here by detectives who followed them from Newark. The detectives had been shadowing Willard, and traced him to Newark, N. J., where he met Mrs. Conrad, introducing himself by a queer symbol on a telegraph blank, which each carried. At police headquarters Inspector Byrnes learned from Mrs. Conrad that she had came from Kentucky to buy $3,000 worth of "green goods" from Willard, had met in Newark by appointment and was on her way to conclude the transaction when the detectives arrested her. Willard was locked up and Mrs. Conrad was detained at headquarters to appear against him.

Winding Up the Jay Cooke Failure.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 11.—The trustees of the estate of Jay Cooke & Co. announce the payment of the final dividend upon claims presented before Monday next. The final dividend will be 1¾ per cent. in cash on $6,451,000 and 8¼ shares of Northern Pacific preferred stock, 3¼ shares of Oregon Steamship and Navigation company stock, and three-quarters of a share of preferred stock of the St. Paul and Duluth railroad to each $1,000 of claim to creditors holding that amount and upwards. With the payment of this dividend the affairs of Jay Cooke & Co. will be wound up and the total amount of cash paid on it will have been 15½ per cent. on $6,451,000. The liabilities when the firm failed in 1873 were nearly $11,000,000, but this amount has been reduced by litigation, compromises and various forms of redemption to the figure above named, less than 60 per cent. There has been no dividend since 1881. During the process of winding up the estate the Jay Cooke interest has acquired about one-half the outstanding claims through redemption and purchase. In the distribution of bonds and stocks to the creditors the amount in the aggregate realized has more than exceeded the extent of the claims.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—Secretary Noble refused to commit himself respecting the published statement that he would eventually order a recount of the population of New York city. The secretary assumes the position that, acting as an arbitrator in the matter, it would be extremely impolitic for him to express an opinion prematurely on an application which he anticipates.

It can be stated positively, however, that Mr. Noble will not order a recount as the case now stands, but there is an even chance in the event new evidence is adduced that the application will be granted.

Stanley Will Sue.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—The Pall Mall Gazette says that Mr. Stanley will prosecute Walter Barttelot and others who have brought charges against him in connection with the controversy regarding the rear guard of the Emin relief expedition. Mr. Stanley has retained Mr. George Lewis and Sir Charles Russell to conduct his case.

$8,700 for the Irish Cause.

BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 10.—Two big meetings were held here Sunday in honor of Dillon and O'Brien. The box office receipts at the two meeting aggregated $5,100, in addition to which the audience pledged $3,600 to the Irish cause.

BARTTELOT A BAD MAN.

Mr. Bonny Supports Stanley's Charges Against the Major.

HIS UNPARALLELED INHUMANITY

The Commander of the Rear Guard Was Many Times a Murderer and a Fiend in Human Form Who Slaughtered Men Without Reason or Mercy.

LONDON, Nov. 10.—The Times publishes a three column letter signed by Bonny, of the rear guard. It begins by expressing regret that Capt. Barttelot should, in his effort to defend Maj. Barttelot's memory, have forced the disclosure of the painful story. Barttelot was possessed of the idea that Stanley was a poisoner and would make away with the white men that knew of his doings in Africa. Bonny admits that he shared the same idea. He and Barttelot frequently talked the subject over, but adds that nothing of the kind was ever proved against Stanley. Barttelot and Jamieson agreed, on account of these rumors, not to partake of Stanley's hospitality.

Barttelot's Brutality Confirmed.

Bonny confirms various statements reflecting upon Barttelot, including Barttelot's attempt to poison Selim Ben Mohamed, Tippu Tip's nephew, because bitter feeling existed between them. He also confirms the story of Barttelot's fastening his teeth in the flesh of a native woman. The bite was inflicted on the cheek, instead of the shoulder, as in Stanley's version. Barttelot would have been lynched for this offense had not Bonny rescued him. Bonny still bears marks of the fierce fight with the natives following the incident.

The Case of John Henry.

Bonny says that Barttelot ran about the camp prodding people with a steel pointed staff, and that the boy Sudi died from the effects of a kick dealt him by the brutal major. Continuing Bonny says:

"I now come to the case of John Henry, the mission boy who died from the effects of a flogging ordered by Barttelot. Walter Barttelot says John Henry had been ordered to be shot, but that this punishment was remitted by the major and flogging substituted at the request of Bonny. This is only partly true.

"Henry did not desert, but Barttelot sent a Soudanese guard after him, and he was placed in the guard room. In talking with me Barttelot said: 'John Henry is a dangerous man and I will shoot him. If I don't shoot him I will cut his ears off.'

Flogged to Death.

"The men all threatened to desert if the boy was shot and Barttelot decided to give him 300 lashes instead of killing him. The lashes were given." Bonny continues: "Henry never uttered a sound after the first thirty lashes, as he became insensible to pain. This scene was the most horrible I ever saw. Mortification set in; the man's flesh fell off in pieces on to the ground, and his body swelled to twice its ordinary size. Within twenty-four hours Henry died."

The Killing of the Manyema.

"It was on the 18th that Soudi received the fatal kick, and I saved the major's life when he bit the Manyema woman; and it was on the night of the same day that he killed the Manyema, the comrade of Sanga. This man Barttelot prodded at least thirty times with his steel pointed cypress staff and finished up by beating the man's brains out before the eyes of all in the village. The scene which followed was like that which occurred when he bit the woman, and again I had to fight to save Barttelot's life. It was only by knocking him down myself that the natives held back, for then they thought I meant to punish him. Maj. Barttelot's reasons for killing the man as he did were that he believed him to be the native who had shot at him and myself while we were sitting in my house the night before."

The natives were goaded to fury by Barttelot's brutality by this time, and Barttelot's murder soon followed. Bonny says: "The description given by Stanley in his statement to The Times regarding the shooting is correct, with the exception of the reference to the steel pointed cypress staff. Barttelot did not have this staff on that morning, and did not therefore stab the woman with it, but he did beat her with his fist, and he did kick her, and he had his loaded revolver in his hand, as stated by Stanley.

Regarding Bonny's Lack of Initiative.

"Stanley has said in his book that I lacked initiative. What he means is that I ought to have taken Maj. Barttelot, bound him, and sent him away. He believes that violence should have been used to stop the proceedings of Maj. Barttelot; but I can only say that I am pleased that Barttelot's blood is not on my hands, as would have been the case had I attempted to do what Stanley suggests. Barttelot was so hated, so execrated by every black man in the camp, that the moment he had passed out of my hands on the way to the coast the men would have torn him limb from limb.

Jamieson's Incredible Inhumanity.

Bonny fully corroborates Stanley's charge that Jamieson bought a girl and had her killed and eaten by natives that he might have exciting incidents for his sketch book. He says:

"Jamieson's servants told the story to the whole garrison, and Jamieson himself related to me every incident as described by Stanley. Jamieson showed me the sketches describing the scene in detail. I cannot now describe each of the six sketches, but they begin with a picture of the girl being brought down tied by one hand to the native, who holds in his right hand the fatal knife. He is then represented thrusting the knife into the girl, while the blood is seen spurting out.

"Then there is the scene of the carving up of the girl limb by limb, and of the natives scrambling for the pieces and running away to cook them, and the final sketch represents the feast. These sketches are now, or were until very recently in the hands of Mrs. Jamieson.

He Warned Barttelot's Brother.

"Walter Barttelot will now understand what I meant when I asked him not to pull his brother out of the grave, and that he should not publish Barttelot's diaries. I told him nearly everything that I have said above, and he cannot claim that he was ignorant of the charges against his brother.

"Unfortunately he has seen fit to suppress parts of Barttelot's diary and parts of the letters. Had he published Barttelot's diaries and letters in full they would have thrown much light on this subject."

Bonny believes Maj. Barttelot was insane. In conclusion he says: "I do not wish to defend Stanley. I am not beholden to him nor to anybody else in this matter. But the public have demanded the truth, and I consider it my duty to give those facts which have come within my own knowledge."

Gladstone on the Recent Elections.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—In reply to a request for his opinion in regard to the American elections, Mr. Gladstone writes the London correspondent of The United Press as follows: "I have received the intelligence of the result of the recent elections in America with lively feelings, on grounds moral not less than economical, and American scarcely less than English. In my opinion the example of America in reference to the tariff will not have much weight in Europe. I might run the risk, if I proceeded further, of justly offending by my undue intrusion, the American Republicans, whom, off the single ground of protection, I rejoice to reckon as warmly sympathizing with the cause of public right. I believe British interest in the McKinley tariff is secondary, except for the momentary disturbance."

Would Not Recognize the Brotherhood.

BETHLEHEM, Pa., Nov. 11.—The grievance committee of the Brotherhood of Railroad Brakemen of the lodges whose members are employed on the Lehigh Valley railroad called on General Eastern Superintendent Goodwin to lay before him a number of grievances they wish to have remedied. The grievances are the regulating of the brakemen's runs, an advance in wages, regulating promotions and the payment of wages during suspension where an inquiry develops that the man suspended was blameless. Superintendent Goodwin refused to receive them as members of the brotherhood, and told them that had they come as employes of the road he would listen to their grievances. He told them, however, that he would bring the matter of their having called on him before the board of directors.

A Successful Authoress.

Returned Tourist—By the way, Mrs. De Beautt, I have not seen your charming daughter since my return. When I left she had determined to submit her first novel to The Heighton Magazine. Has she been successful in her literary aspirations?

Mrs. De Beautt—Perfectly. She married the editor.—New York Weekly.

BLOOMSBURG, PA.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 1890.

Some other year Delamater will be looking for his vindication.

Quay has gone to Florida on a fishing excursion.

In issuing his thanksgiving proclamation, President Harrison forgot to mention the blessings of the recent elections.

"Who killed the Republican party?" "I, said McKinley, with my little tariff bill, I killed the party."

Mortimer F. Elliot of Wellsboro is said to be seriously ill, the result of exposure and over-exertion during the campaign.

Dick Quay, son of Senator M. S. Quay, was elected to the legislature in Beaver county by a majority of 116 when it would ordinarily have been 1500.

It is astonishing how harmonious the Republican organs are nowadays. They want peace, and they are beseeching the Independents, whom they have been calling all sorts of names for several weeks, to come back into the party and "pull together for 1892."

It is probable that the United States Senate will be controlled by the Democrats in two years more. Democrats will be chosen this winter to succeed Evarts of New York, Farwell of Illinois, Spooner of Wisconsin, and Ingalls of Kansas, which will reduce the present Republican majority to six.

One of the most pleasing results of the late election is the fact that a Democrat will succeed John J. Ingalls of Kansas in the Senate. He is one of the most intolerant and abusive men of the opposition. It is he who was reported as saying at Pittsburg during the campaign, that the meanest Republican was better than the best Democrat he ever knew.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our Regular Correspondent.)

Washington, D. C. Nov. 10, 1890.

Senator Quay has by unanimous consent been selected as the republican Jonah, and there exists the best of reasons for believing that he will be asked to retire, not only from the chairmanship of the republican National committee, but to resign his membership. It would have been done before now, but that the question of what to do with J. S. Clarkson has not been decided. Clarkson is Vice-chairman of the committee and has always been an humble tool of Quay's, and there is a feeling among influential republicans against his being made chairman of the committee, as he would naturally expect, when Quay retires. As soon as a satisfactory solution of that difficulty is reached Mr. Quay will receive what the boys call the "grand bounce." Quay is now in Florida, and Clarkson is also down South somewhere. They both thought it a good time for disappearing for awhile.

Mr. Harrison is having a terrible time over the Force bill Mr. Blaine whose predictions about the tariff bill have materialized so soon, and a few other prominent republicans are trying to persuade him to let the Force bill alone in his message to Congress, which he is now preparing, and the radical element in his partywhich embraces nine-tenths of its recognized leaders, are urging him to insist upon the immediate passage by the Senate of the bill. Mr. Harrison is very badly frightened at the tornado of popular disapprobation that struck his administration and party on election day, and would most willingly take Mr. Blaine's advice, but for the fact that he had committed himself in favor of the Force bill last Summer.

Senator Blackburn has made public a scene which took place in a Senate committee room last summer where he was the only democrat present, and where Mr. Blaine stated in the plainest language that if the McKinley bill, which was then before the Senate committee, was passed it would ruin the republican party and prevent its electing the President in 1892. He became so excited during his denunciation of the measure that he smashed a new silk hat which was lying before him on a table. Mr. Blaine has not changed his mind.

It will be many a day before the democrats get through enthusing over the recent election. Every train brings in prominent democrats, and every arrival means a fresh jubilee. The local democrats fired a salute of 52 guns Friday night, although Col. Ernst in charge of public buildings and grounds did his best to prevent it by refusing to give them a permit to fire them in the same place that the republicans were granted a similar permit two years ago, but that didn't prevent it; nothing could. The guns were fired and close enough to the White House for Mr. Harrison to enjoy the music.

Under this administration Federal employes are slaves. An estimable lady clerk in the Washington City Post-office is now under suspension, because she repeated a jovial remark of a fellow clerk to Dick Quay, a son of the Senator. Dick presented an order for the Senators mail at the general delivery window and the lady went back in the office and inquired where the Senators mail was. "Oh he's dead and his mail has gone to the dead letter office", said one of the clerks laughingly. The lady walked back to the window and thoughtlessly repeated the remarks to Dick, who, by the way, she did not know. He went to the Post-office department and reported the lady as having insulted him and his father, and an order was issued to the City Post-master for her immediate suspension.

Mr. Wanamaker has not made a popular official, but now that reports of the pending failure of his big Philadelphia firm are circulated, a great deal of sympathy is expressed here for him, and it is hoped that the claims of his friends—he is not here—that the rumor originated by Jay Gould for the purpose of injuring Mr. Wanamaker's credit, because of his persistency in behalf of a postal telegraph system, to which Mr. Gould is opposed, may prove to be true.

It is not often that the leaders of a political party have to complain because they are given too much by the voters of the country, but that's about the condition of the democratic leaders. They fully appreciate the emphatic endorsement of the principles of the party given by the people, but they would have anticipated far less trouble had their majority been about a hundred less in the next House—it is now so large that it actually causes anxiety.

The feeling that the short session of Congress will, in its anxiety to pass political legislation neglect to pass all of the regular appropriation bills, and thus make an extra session of the Fifty second Congress, in the spring, necessary, to provide for the needs of the Government, has precipitated the campaign for the speakership and the other officers of the next House.

Congressional Returns.

The return judges for the 7th Congressional District, met at Sunbury on Tuesday last. D. R. Coffman represented Columbia county. The vote was as follows:

	Dem. Wolverton	Rep. Farnsworth	Pro. Patton
Northumberland	7042	5499	447
Columbia	4784	3001	816
Montour	2185	967	49
Sullivan	1247	747	18

Wolverton's plurality, 5944.

PATTISON'S MAJORITY GROWING.

HE NOW HAS A PLURALITY OF OVER SEVENTEEN THOUSAND.

Some slight changes in the returns, resulting from the official count in such countfes as have been completed, bring the plurality of Governor-elect Pattison up to 17,322. The Associated Press returns give Watres, for Lieutenant Governor, 18,675 plurality, and Stewart, for Secretary of Internal affairs, 19,120 plurality,

The official returns so far received show the election to the State Senate of 10 Republicans and 16 Democrats. In the lower branch of the Legislature there will be 122 Republicans, 80 Democrats and 2 Fusionists, making a Republican majority of 50 on joint ballot, a Republican joint ballot loss of 52 as compared with the present Legislature.

The following table gives official and unofficial majorities by counties:

The Democratic Sweep.

A NET GAIN OF NO LESS THAN EIGHTY-FIVE DONGRESSMEN.

The returns up to date show that in the tidal wave that swept across the country on last week the Democrats made a gain of 24 members of the House of Representatives in the Eastern States, 37 in the Western and 25 in the Southern, or a net gain of 86 members. There may possibly be some slight changes, but it is now reasonably certain that the lower House of the Fifty-second Congress will consist of 237 Democrats and 95 Republicans, provided the Second district of Rhode Island sends a Republican, as it is likely to do.

In the Democratic column the Farmers' Alliance representatives are included. Of these, Stockhouse, of South Carolina; Brady, of North Carolina, and Dadis, Simpson and Baker, of Kansas, are all known to be opposed to the Republican party and undoubtedly belong with the Democrats. The Alliance contributed to the success of several other members, but in each case it was the result of co-operation with the Democrats.

As far as the Senate is concerned, there is every reason to believe that Democrats will be chosen to succeed Farwell, of Illinois; Ingalls, of Kansas; Eyarts, of New York; Spooner of Wisconsin, and Blair, of New Hampshire. South Dakota is now known to have gone Republican and Moody's successor will consequently be a Republican. The official count will be necessary to determine the result in Colorado, but the indications are that the Republicans have pulled through by a slight majority and Teller will have a chance to succeed himself.

The following table shows the complexion of the Fifty-second Congress compared with the Fifty-first, Rhode Island being credited with only one member:

	NEW HOUSE. R.	D.	OLD HOUSE. R.	D.
Alabama	0	8	Alabama	1	7

Charles Cosgrove.

Who has not been able to attend to his business for years, was interviewed by our reporter yesterday, and says: For years I was troubled with Bright's disease of the kidneys. The doctors gave me up. Through an Eeastern friend I obtained a bottle of Sulphur Bitters. I took five bottles and now I am almost well. Keith sells them—San Francisco Call. 11-14 2.t.

Mr. Cleveland's Triumph.

The man above all others who has reason to feel proud and gratified at the result of the November elections is that brave and modest American who formulated for the popular comprehension the doctrine of tariff reform, which the country has at last so enthusiastically accepted. The verdict of Tuesday week is the triumph of President Cleveland' sepoch-making message.

He knew well what he was doing when that message was delivered. He knew how it would startle not only the timorous and time-serving politicians, even of his own party, but the great mass of the people, whom these same politicians had so long misled, so kept in ignorance of the very rudiments of political economy, that they could not at once receive the truth But he knew also that the time had come when the truth must be told and the education of the people begun, and at whatever cost to himself he would not shrink from his duty.

His party, hesitating for a time came up manfully to his standard, and a majority of the whole people voted on his side. But the power of entrenched monopoly was still too strong and ignorance and prejudice could not be overcome in a single campaign. The election was lost by fraud and bribery and then the monopolists felt assured that they had a new lease of power and that the day of reckoning would never come. They did not understand that the people had been awakened and had learned to think for themselves.

The education begun in the Presidential campaign was continued by the debates in Congress. Every newspaper in the country took up the discussion. It was carried on in the homes, in the shops, wherever two or three met together. For the first time the true relations of a tariff to taxation and the cost of living, as well as to commerce and industry, were received and critically examined. And when the dominant party persisted in its despotic course and went further than ever had been proposed before in the imposition of taxes on the masses for the aggrandizement of the favored classes, the people arose and struck it to the earth.

In less than three years the seed planted in that famous message has grown up into a hardy tree that has spread over the whole land. Mr. Cleveland was as truly the leader in this stupendous revolution as though he had been himself the candidate. He did not need to take a part in the campaign. He had already framed the issue and the people followed him.—Times.

That Tin-Plate Tax.

Taking advantage of the benefits of "protection," the Chicago packers of canned meat have decided to give another lesson to the poor man that he has to pay the tariff duties.

By deciding to advance canned meats one-fourth of a cent a pound the packers will add an additional profit not only to themselves, but to every one handling their goods. The wholesale grocer, who has to pay the packer his advance, will add another one-fourth per cent., and thus the advance will bring him a clear profit. The retailer will of course have to join in the upward movement, and he will recoup himself for the half-cent advance by charging an extra cent per pound. Of course the full increase comes out of the pocket of the consumer.

This is a practical illustration of how the tariff works. Everybody is protected except the poor man. He pays all the taxes and the other fellows get all the benefits.

Deafness Can't Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube, When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound for inperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed for ever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We wil give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that we cannot cure by taking Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Thanksgiving Day.

THE PRESIDENT ISSUES HIS ANNUAL PROCLAMATION TO THE PEOPLE.

The following is the Thanksgiving Day proclamation by the President of the United States:—

By the grace and favor of Almighty God, the people of this nation have been led to the closing days of the passing year, which has been full of the blessings of peace and the comforts of plenty. Bountiful compensation has come to us for the work of our minds and of our hands in every department of human industry.

Now, therefore, I, Benjamin Harrison, President of the United States of America, do hereby appoint Thursday, the 27th day of the present month of November, to be observed as a day of prayer and Thanksgiving; and I do invite the people upon that day to cease from their labors, to meet in their accustomed houses of worship, and to join in rendering gratitude and praise to our beneficent Creator for the rich blessings He has granted to us as a nation, and in invoking the continuance of His protection and grace for the future. I commend to my fellow citizens the privilege of remembering the poor, the homeless, and the sorrowful. Let us endeavor to merit the promised recompense of charity and the gracious acceptance of our praise.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington this eighth day of No- [SEAL.] vember, in the year of our Lord one thousond eight hundred and ninety, and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and fifteenth.

BENJAMIN HARRISON.

By the President:
JAMES G. BLAINE, Secretary of State.

Scrofula

Is the most ancient and most general of all diseases. Scarcely a family is entirely free from it, while thousands everywhere are its suffering slaves. Hood's Sarsaparilla has had remarkable success in curing every form of scrofula. The most severe and painful running sores, swellings in the neck or goitre, humor in the eyes, causing partial or total blindness, yield to the powerful effects of this medicine. It thoroughly removes every trace of impurity from the blood and builds up the weakened system.

"My little daughter's life was saved, as we believe, by Hood's Sarsaparilla. Before she was six months old she had 7 running scrofula sores. One physician advised the amputation of one of her fingers, to which we refused assent. When we began giving her Hood's Sarsaparilla, a marked improvement was noticed and by a continued use of it her recovery was complete. And she is now, being seven years old, strong and healthy." B. C. JONES, Alna, Lincoln County, Me. N. B. Be sure to get Hood's.

WELL BRED SOON WED. Girls who use SAPOLIO are QUICKLY MARRIED

SAPOLIO is one of the best known city luxuries and each time a cake is used an hour is saved. On floors, tables and painted work it acts like a charm. For scouring pots, pans and metals it has no equal. If your store-keeper does not keep it you should insist upon his doing so, as it always gives satisfaction and its immense sale all over the United States makes it an almost necessary article to any well supplied store. Everything shines after its use, and even the children delight in using it in their attempts to help around the house.

Death of John Kressler.

John Kressler died at his home in Scott township last Thursday evening at about 8 o'clock, aged 79 years and 8 months. Mr. Kressler was a man of strong constitution. He was never sick, until about three years ago, when he had an attack of paralysis, from which he never recovered. He bore his sickness well, and loved to read God's Word. He was born in 1811 in the same house in which he died and lived there except about ten years when he lived in Espy. He was married in 1844 to Miss Sarah Henrie of Orangeville. He was the father of four children, Electa, who married Mr. D. F. Weiss, Alonzo, Calvin and Retta, all of whom together with their mother survive him. Three brothers and one sister survive him, Samuel 86 yrs., Moses, (in Michigan), 83 yrs., Betsy (Vansickle), 78 yrs. and Casper, 75 He was buried Sunday morning from the Lutheran church, with which he had been connected from childhood. Rev. B. F. Alleman, D. D., of Lancaster, a former pastor, and who had been requested by the deceased to be present at his burial, delivered the address. Rev. P. A. Heilman the present pastor, also spoke in beautiful language, giving his testimonial of Mr. Kressler's fidelity as he learned him in the first year.

Among The Husband's People.

The young wife who leaves her own family in a measure, that is, in its close daily life, and enters largely, as she must needs do, into the life and circumstances of another family, will do well for herself if she take with her a determination to love and to be loved. It is an ill adviser who cautions her to stand upon her rights, and to let the others observe in the beginning that there is to be no interference. It is time enough to resent interference, if it is of the unwarrantable sort, when it comes. To go bristling all over with arms and armor is to invite attack anywhere. She should remember, too, that sometimes parents have the right to interfere. Even if the interference comes at last, even if it be ill-judged, she will do better to meet it gently than to repel it forcibly. She will be wise to look at the possibilities of her future, too, and we see the folly of weakening any of the anchorages, as one may say, of her husband's life; to see the better part of increasing his love and fealty to his own people, to appreciate the help they will always be eager to give her in strengthening the good and repressing that which is not so good; the restraint they will be in case of need, the wall of support to all her endeavors. And even if she never require any help of this sort, and the very thought be a profanity, she should convince herself that her husband's people have, before anything is said, a right to her affection. They are the ones of whose flesh and blood, of whose life and manners, of whose thought and principles, was born that which is most precious of all the universe to her; they cannot be quite unworthy of some portion of that which their son evokes. Sometimes she will find these people aching for her love; and whether they are so eager as that or not, if she only give it to them with a quick and tender heart, taking theirs for granted, whatever are her imperfections they will be forgiven, whatever are her excellences they will be exalted, and she will make for herself and for her husband a happiness far exceeding that to be had by any other course.—HARPER'S BAZAR.

East Benton.

The Briarcreek correspondent informed the Sentinel readers week before last that Morris Rittenhouse of that township raised corn ears containing twenty-two rows and one thousand and forty-two grains each. Judge Krickbaum, of Benton township, shelled two corn ears each containing twenty-two rows, one of fourteen hundred and ninety grains and the other twelve hundred and eighty-four. The grains of one ear measured three-fourths of a quart. We are responsible for this assertion, we saw it measured.

The news of the election fell like a wet blanket over our Republican friends. It chilled all future prospects of protective tariff for our "infant industries" of millionaire capacities, and bids fair for the masses to be freed from legal highway robbery.

Much serious sickness is prevalent in and around our community.

Mrs. John C. Doty was buried last Thursday.

Levi Wenner of Register is not expected to live. He has a very severe attack of pneumonia.

Mrs. J. F. Ashelman has a severe attack of malaria.

Another wedding soon. Boys keep your horns and tin pails in good order. There is music in the air.

Alex Campbell's son was buried at Hamline last Monday.

The Misses Laura and Mary Wenner, accompanied by Mr. Elmer Albertson attended church at Hamiline last Sunday.

It is dangerous to neglect catarrh, for it leads to bronchitis and consumption. Hood's Sarsaparilla cures catarrh in all forms.

LIGHT STREET.

One of the greatest parades of the season took place in our little village on Monday night in honor of the election of Robt. E. Pattison, the parade being headed by one of the leading republicans of the town, carrying a banner on which Quay was not allowed to talk or Boss Reed to bring down his gavel. F. P. Hagenbuch, R. M. Creasy and Chas. Crawford acted, as Marshals. Quay's and Delamater's Salt River boat first in procession, followed by two loads of the young ladies of the town, their banner having for its inscription, 'Get aboard that Delamater ship', 'Down went McKinley,' 'Quay was left,' 'The whole people turned out for Pattison,' We can't vote but our dad's can. Next in order was the Orangeville Band composed of as gentlemanly set of fellows as you wish to meet and who are to be congratulated on the active part they took in the parade, for which they have the thanks of true Democracy; they were followed by about forty men on horses and quite a number of buggies, our band bringing up the rear.

The trades were represented by the different mechanics of town; travelling tinsmiths, Ent Bros. making tinware; carpentering, John Wanich and Will Wertman making Salt River boats; blacksmithing, A. C. Hidlay and helpers making cornhuskers. The farmers were represented by M. E. Seibert and son threshing rye, with floating banner 'The farmers turned out for Pattison," the corn-husking represented by farmer Weaver's son Tom, John Croty and Alvin Keim, mowing by John Garman and N. B. Crouse.

The steamboat upon which Quay, Delamater and Reed undertook to go up the river in, did not have sufficient timber in it, as shown on one of the banners, it leaves them in a predicament that unless assistance reaches them soon they will be out of reach.

It would have been well for one of the speakers that attended the Republican meeting here to have seen the Democrats turn out. The balances that he spoke of as weighing us in and finding us wanting would have to be turned the other way. The parade formed at the lower end of town passing up to Ex-Sheriff Hoffman's returning up Quality Street to Geo Jacoby's at the Presbyterian Church, counter-marching to Main St., thence through Main St., thence to the place of starting and dispersing. It is estimated that about four hundred people took part in the parade. Oh! yes! We almost forget the drum corps of Bloomsburg who were with us and helped to enliven the occasion with music. Thanks to W. H. Gilmore and the rest.

Sunday School Convention.

The seventh Sunday school convention of Madison township was held in the M. E. Church at Jerseytown, Oct., 25, 1890.

The devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. A. W. Decker, after which Della Wagner was elected secretary and Mr. A. C. Smith, tressurer.

The first topic for discussion, "The good and need of the Sunday School," was opened by Rev. L. F. Brown, who said, it was evident without discussion that the Sunday School was needed. You will notice that in a community where there are Sunday schools people stand on a higher plain, spiritually, morally, civilly and intellectually than in a place where there are no Sunday schools. Rev. A. W. Decker said, Sunday schools are needed in the winter as well as summer, a church is made more prosperous by being connected with them. The next subject for discussion, "The Advantages of the Sunday School to the Community and the Obligations growing out of them," had been assigned Rev. Brown, who said: The Sunday school is the right arm of the church. It is the best talent that has taken hold of the Sunday school work. To be an advantage the Sunday school must be a part and subordinate of the church; the church officers should be the officers of the Sunday school. After the benediction, adjourned to meet at 2:30 o'clock.

At the appointed time the session opened with music and prayer by Rev. L. F. Brown.

The topic, What should be done with tardy Superintendents and Teachers? was ably opened by D. A. Shultz followed by F. P. Johnson, Geo. Lee, Revs. Brown and Decker and Mrs. Merrical. The conclusion reached was—Do not expel him, encourage him by rewarding him, by being present yourself and by praying for him. Give him all the influence you can, speak well of his school on every occasion. The question, "Is it proper for some other member of the Sunday school to open the school in the absence of the Superintendent?" was asked by Mr. Geo. Mausteller. The answer. It is decidedly proper. Should the superintendent fail to make his appearance and the session remain unopened, some thoughts of great importance might be lost.

D. A. Shultz was then elected Vice President for the coming year. Adjourned to meet at 7 p. m.

The evening session opened with music and prayer by Rev. Engle, after which the following topics were discussed: 1st—Memorizing Scripture; is it of use? was opened by the President, Mr. Albert Girton, who said, Ignorance of the love of God is a highway to sin. Many a sinner under the load of adversity would no doubt be relieved many a time had he memorized some of those good texts such as, "Come unto Me all ye who labor and are heavy laden and I will give you rest."

Rev. Engle said, We can't have too many passages on hand. We should not only learn the passage in substance, but as it is word for word. It is a comfort for the aged to repeat scripture memorized in their youth, also a comfort to those on a dying bed.

On the topic—The necessity of Educating our schools on the subject of Missions, Rev. Engle said, We must teach our children a two-fold religion, a man may teach his child to till his farm, he must also teach him to work for Christ. We are only tenants here and owe all to God.

As we were once helped by the fatherland, we owe help to others, if we can't go ourselves we must send others.

The subject—The Teacher's Responsibility, was opened by Rev. A. W. Decker, who said, A teacher holds a most responsible position in the Sunday school. He must always know his lesson, he must know what to teach and how to teach it, for he will have to give an account of his work on the last great day.

Appointment of Committees.

On motion of Rev. A. W. Decker, a vote of thanks was tendered the Sexton, the President and the Choir for their efficient services.

The Convention having completed its business, adjourned after the benediction by Rev. Engle.

A New Fad.

One of the fads that has recently become popular, and the one which, on account of its sensible nature, is likely to survive, is that of child namesakes giving each other on their birthdays a silver spoon. A gentleman connected with the silver department of the large establishment of Bailey, Banks & Biddle, said that it was the fashion for little girls of the better class, to give these birthday gifts to their friends, and that the spoon was laid away each year until the full dozen was collected.

A Remarkable Book By Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage, D. D.

This is said to be a year of remarkable books, but doubtless the most remarkable that will appear for some time to come is Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage's new work on the "Life of Christ" and "Palestine and its People." Some idea of what the book contains and how it was prepared may be obtained by reading the following extract from the Doctor's preface:

"In my American home, on the Atlantic, on Mediterranean, on camel's back, on mule's back, on horseback, under chandelier, by dim candle in tent, on Lake Galilee, in convent, at Bethel where Jacob's pillow was stuffed with dreams, and the ladder landed; at the brook Elah, from which little David picked up the ammunition of five smooth stones, four more than were needed for crushing like an egg-shell the skull of Goliath; in the Valley of Ajalon, over which, at Joshua's command, Astronomy halted; on the plain of Esdraelon, the battle-field of ages, its long red flowers suggestive of the blood dashed to the bits of the horses' bridles; amid the shattered masonry of Jerico, in Jerusalem that over-shadows all other cities in reminiscence, at Cana where plain water became festal beverage, on Calvary whose aslant and ruptured rocks still show the effects of the awful hemorrhage of the five wounds that purchased the world's rescue, and with my hand mittened from the storm, or wet from the Jordan, or bared to the sun, or gliding over smooth table, this book has been written."

This book will certainly be worth reading and preserving. It is not only a life of Christ from an entirely new stand-point, but it is also a very interesting history of a country and people who occupy a prominent place in the thoughts and feelings of all Christian nations. The large number of excellent pictures of places and scenery in the Holy Land with which the volume is illustrated, give it a special interest and value. We cannot all go to Palestine, but this elegant book, through the aid of its pictures and Dr. Talmage's wonderful descriptions accompanying them, brings Palestine to our very doors. The book is indeed a positive necessity to a proper understanding of the Bible accounts of places and events. We can understand and appreciate Bible history all the better when we see photographic representations of the places where this history was made. "From Manger to Throne" marks a new era in the literature of Bible Lands, and we are not surprised to learn that the demand for the book is phenomenal. It is sold on the exclusive territory basis, and persons desiring to secure agencies will find the Publishers' announcement in another column.

THE DEAD LETTER OFFICE.

The Post Office Department has issued a circular concerning the Dead Letter Office, from which the following facts are gleamed:

Over six million pieces of mail matter are sent annually to the Dead Letter Office by reason of incorrect, illegible, or deficient address, insufficient postage, insecure closing, whereby matter mailed becomes separated from the envelope or wrapper, or the failure to be called for or delivered to the person addressed. This is a daily average of over twenty thousand pieces.

Of these the greater portion either are not called for at the post office to which they are directed, or, in case of free delivery offices, the addresses cannot be found, notwithstanding every known means is resorted to on the part of the postal officials to effect delivery.

Matter sent to the Dead Letter Office, which cannot be delivered to the person addressed, is required to be opened in its treatment for the purpose of return to the sender, and if the name and address of the sender be not shown or cannot be ascertained from the contents, and it contains no valuable inclosure, it must be destroyed.

Letters opened and found to contain any inclosure of obvious value are entered upon proper records and, of such, those which do not disclose sufficient information to enable them to be returned are filed subject to reclamation upon proper application and identification.

Letters which contain no inclosure of obvious value are not recorded.

Packages and parcels are recorded, and where they do not disclose the name and address of the owner are filed; if not called for or claimed within two years they are disposed of at public auction and the proceeds covered into the United States Treasury.

Misdirection, incorrect, illegible, and deficient address are given as leading causes which occasion the failure of mail matter to reach its proper destination, and affect alike that which is so addressed to either city, town, or village.

The following suggestions, if observed, will aid the dispatch and delivery of matter sent through the mails, or its return directly to the sender in the event of non-delivery, and thus prevent the annoyance, delay, and embarrassment caused by sending matter to the Dead Letter Office.

Mail matter should be plainly and correctly addressed, the name of the post office to which it is to be sent should be clearly and distinctly stated, and to avoid confusion from the similarity of abbreviations, as frequently used, the name of the State should also be given in full. In the case of mail addressed to small offices, or where there are offices of like names in different States, the name of the county should be added.

Where mail matter is addressed to cities or free-delivery offices the street and house number, or post-office box number of the person addressed are important, and should always be given when it is possible to do so.

Where this cannot be done, the business or employment of the person addressed, if stated, will often secure delivery.

The name and address of the sender, either printed or written, should be placed upon the upper left-hand corner of the envelope or wrapper of all matter mailed.

This will secure its immediate return to the sender from the mailing office for correction if improperly addressed, insufficiently paid, or otherwise defective; thus affording opportunity to comply with the postal regulations and requirements, and place the matter in proper condition to entitle it to all the privileges of the mails, and is especially useful in the case of packages and other matter mailable at less than letter rate of postage, which is restricted to certain conditions and requirements as to weight, size, manner of inclosure, etc.

Letters and all other matter mailed, so marked with the name and address of the sender, that should fail to be called for or delivered to the person addressed, and upon which full letter rates of postage has been paid are not sent to the dead letter office, but are returnable to the sender directly — without additional charge, and with the reason of non-delivery indorsed thereon.

Packages and all matter mailed at less than letter rates of postage, should, in addition to the name and address of the sender upon the envelope or wrapper, bear in connection therewith a request for its return in the event of non-delivery, in which case it is also returnable directly to the sender from the post office addressed, charged with return postage at the rate required for the class of matter to which it belongs.

Pensions! Veterans!!

The Disability Pension Bill.

Act of June 27, 1890, grants pensions to all ex-soldiers and sailors who served 90 days or more in the Army or Navy during the rebellion, and were honorably discharged, and who are now suffering from any permanent, mental or physical disability contracted since the war or during the war whether from disease, injuries or effects of old age, at the rate of from $6 to $12 per month, according to the degree of his disability for the performance of labor requiring the exertion of physical strength; provided the disability is not due to vicious habits. This pension is not restricted to the veterans who have to make their living by hard labor, but is equally due to professional men or clerks, provided they have an existing disability which would prevent the continuous exercise of the physical strength of an able-bodied man.

Those who have applied under the general laws and who are unable to prove up the pending claim can apply for and secure this pension and then continue the prosecution of the former claim and secure their arrears.

If you are now drawing a small pension, say $2 or $4 per month, you can take this pension instead, and if you have an application on file for increase or additional pension for new disabilities you can continue the prosecution of such claims while drawing the new pension, or you can file an original claim for a disability contracted in the service while drawing pension under this new act.

Widows, children, and dependent mothers and fathers are entitled under this act and can suspend the prosecution of any pending claim, and take this pension, and afterwards complete the prior claim and get arrears.

Having been duly appointed an Agent according to the rules and regulations of the Department of the Interior in the prosecution of such claims and having had success in a number of cases I am always prepared to give information and assist claimants, and will assure them success if they are able to establish the facts as required by law.

Those interested should call soon and claim their reward.

W. H. BROOKE & CO.

Our announcement last week of the sale of the BRITTANICA CYCLOPEDIA brought many inquiries by mail and person. For explanation we would say that the ninth and latest edition contains new and improved maps brought down to date, at $1.50 per volume.

This edition contains new and later articles on matters pertaining to the United States by American writers of the highest reputation. This one point of superiority over other editions will make this more valuable than the original.

The set is well printed. large clear type, on strong paper and is well and substantially bound. We are the sole agents for Columbia county.

To let you know what an unequalled opportunity this is you can have the First Volume for 60 cents, without any obligation on your part to take the remaining volumes of the set—which can be had if desired at the price first named and be paid for as received, one a month, or as many as you desire.

The set will be in 25 volumes —total cost to you $36.60.

Yours truly,

"Poker" Paine.

DROPS INTO A NICE LITTLE FORTUNE OF $170,000 AND BUYS A SUMMER PALACE.

There are few men who are better known in this city than W. I. Paine, more familiar known as "Poker" Paine, and any news of his doings is always eagerly read.

He was in town a week or so ago and appeared in a suit brought by John L. Williamson to recover $2,900 money lent, Poker Paine borrowed the money from Mr. Williamson way back in '77 but neglected to repay it. He was at that time in pretty straightened circumstances. It was before the time when, according to popular belief he received the load of bird shot from Frank Lee's gun as he was jumping over the low wall that surrounded his mansion. He had not any wife's fortune to use and he had run through all the money he could lay his hands on.

When pressed for payment of this money, he wrote several letters to Mr. Williamson, begging for more time in which to pay. When on the stand Paine admitted that some monetary transaction had taken place between himself and Mr. Williamson but denied all memory of their nature or having written any such letters. The jury, however, gave a verdict for $2900 for Mr. Williamson and it looks as if Mr. Paine would have to shell out.

He, or rather his wife, nee Lee nee Swetland has just made a deal by which they will receive $170,000 in cash. His wife at one time owned coal property worth $600,000. Most of this was on the west side of the river, but some is at Duryea and that vicinity. At different times they sold a good deal of this and a week or two ago, sold almost the whole of what was left of the property in Wyoming and vicinity for $170,000, of this sum they receive $85,000 in cash, the balance to be paid in two years with interest.

The snug little sum of $85,000 which Poker Paine has now got in his hands will not probably last him very long. As soon as he got it he purchased a palatial summer home on the Pocono Mountain. At present he and his wife are occupying a splendid suite of rooms at a cost of $600 a week in the Marlborough House in New York.

The land which Mrs. Paine still owns in Wyoming and Duryea will produce large incomes in coal royalties for years to come. —News Dealer.

Sick Headache

Is a complaint from which many suffer and few are entirely free. Its cause is indigestion and a sluggish liver, the cure for which is readily found in the use of Ayer's Pills.

"I have found that for sick headache, caused by a disordered condition of the stomach, Ayer's Pills are the most reliable remedy."—Samuel C. Bradburn, Worthington, Mass.

"After the use of Ayer's Pills for many years, in my practice and family, I am justified in saying that they are an excellent cathartic and liver medicine—sustaining all the claims made for them." —W. A. Westfall, M. D., V. P. Austin & N. W. Railway Co., Burnet, Texas.

"Ayer's Pills are the best medicine known to me for regulating the bowels, and for all diseases caused by a disordered stomach and liver. I suffered for over three years from headache, indigestion, and constipation. I had no appetite and was weak and nervous most of the time. By using three boxes of Ayer's Pills, and at the same time dieting myself, I was completely cured." —Philip Lockwood, Topeka, Kansas.

"I was troubled for years with indigestion, constipation, and headache. A few boxes of Ayer's Pills, used in small daily doses, restored me to health. They are prompt and effective."—W. H. Strout, Meadville, Pa.

THE PEOPLE'S VICTORY.

IT WAT THE MOST COMPLETE IN THE NATION'S HISTOAY.

The Democratic victory on Tuesday last was more than extraordinary. It was a political revolution, the like of which has never bee seen in this country before and may never be seen again. The Republican leaders cannot find a vestige of comfort in the re turns. The more notable triumphs of the Democrats may be summarized briefly as follows.

They made a net ga n of four and possibly six United States Senators.

They elected a majority in the Fifty second House of Representatives of over one hundred and forty, the largest since Jackson's time.

They overturned a natural Republican majority of 60,000 in Pennsylvania and elected Robe.t E. Pattison Governor.

They gave to Massachusetts the third Democratic Governor the old Bay State has had since the Republican party assumed control, thirty years ago.

They voted out of sight the adroit Republican gerrymandering in New Hampshire, not only insuring a Democratic successor of Senator Blair, but also electing a Democratic Governo, which renders feasible and probable a redistricting of the State.

They elected a Democratic Governor of Nebraska for the first time in its history.

They made great inroads upon the Republican majority of 80,000 in Kansas and possibly have repeat l their success of 1882. when a Democratic Governor was chosen.

They overcome a Republican majority of over 12,000 in Wisconsin and elected a Democratic Governor.

They elected a part of their State ticket in Michigan, despite a natural Republican majority of fully 30,000.

They greatly reduced the Republican majority in the Colorado Legislature, and there now seems a fair prospect of redeeming the Centennial State

They rallied around Gen. John M. Palmer in Illinois, and have secured a Legislature which will send him to the Senate.

T iey probably elected a Democratic Governor, and surely a Democratic Legislature in Connecticut, thus securing a gain of a United States Senator in place of Orvilie H. Platt. Should it prove that the Governor lacks a clear majority of all the votes cast, the Democratic Legislature will ratify the will of a plurality of the voters and elect their candidate.

They have reduced the Republican vote in Montana to such an extent that they may again have a Democratic majority in the Legislature of which they were previously deprived.

They greatly reduced the Republican majorities in the new States, which were created for the express purpose of giving the Republicans additional votes in Congress and in the electoral college.

They showed in the Southern States that the people resent the proposed military espionage of the exercise of right of sufferage.

They went into the homes of the wageearners in Rhode Island, who are types of those for whom the so-called "Protection" policy is said to have been invented, and sought a popular protest against the McKinley bill, and the "protected" voters elected a tariff reformer to Congress in one of the districts, and have more than an even chance to elect their candidate in the other when the second election takes place.

They followed up their victory of a year ago in Iowa, where a Democratic Governor was elected, by so large a vote for the other State officers that the complete returns will be necessary to determine which side has won.

They returned to the House every Democratic member of the Fifty-first Congress unseated by the Republicans who was renominated and carried every district thus represented.

They elected a Legislature in Kansas, which seems likely to leave John J. Ingalls at home.

They defeated William McKinley, the Republican leader of the House and sponsor for the new tariff, despite the personal efforts on his behalf of the President, the Secretary of State, the Speaker of the House and many other prominent Republicans.

They defeated Jonathan H. Rowell, Chairman of the House Committee, which reported the Force bill.

They reduced the majority of 5,000 given Henry Cabot Lodge, supposed author of the Force bill to merely nominal figures.

They defeated Joseph G. Cannon, the foul-mouthed Representative from Illinois, despite his previous majorities of over 2,000.

They defeated William E Mason another Illinois representative of similiar proclivities.

They did much more, gaining everywhere and losing nowhere, according to reports received at this writing.

In many States, notably Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, Connecticut and New Hampshire, thousands of far-seeing Republicans worked with them shoulder to shoulder, and in the West and South the new-born Farmer's Alliance developed great strength and display I marked sagacity in adding for to the stinging rebuke administered to the servants of monopolies and capitalists.

The result then was more and better than a Democratic triumph. It was a victory of THE PEOPLE.

Dr. Talmage's First Cigar.

HOW IT TASTED AND HOW HE FELT AFTER SMOKING IT.

The time had come in our boyhood which we thought demanded of us a capacity to smoke. The old people of the household could abide neither the sight nor the smell of the Virginia weed. When ministers came there, not by positive injunction but by a sort of instinct as to what would be safest, they whiffed their pipe on the back step. If the houses could not stand sanctified smoke, you may know how little chance there was for adolescent cigar-puffing.

By some rare good fortune which put in our hands three cents, we found access to a tobacco store. As the lid of the long, narrow, fragrant box opened, and for the first time we owned a cigar our feelings of elation, manliness, superiority and anticipation can scarcely be imagined, save by those who have had the same sensation. Our first ride on horseback, though we fell off before we got to the barn, and our first pair of new boots (real squeakers), we had thought could never be surpassed in interest; but when we put the cigar to our lips and struck the lucifer match to the end of the weed, and commenced to pull with an energy that brought every facial muscle to its utmost tension, our satisfaction with this world was so great our tempation was never to want to leave it.

The cigar did not burn well; it required an amount of suction that tasked our determination to the utmost. You see that our worldly means had limited us to a quality that cost only three cents. But we had been taught that nothing great was accomplished without effort, and so we puffed away. Indeed, we had heard our older brothers in their Latin lessons say, omina vincet labor; which translated means if you want to make anything go, you must scratch for it.

With these sentiments, we passed down the village street and out toward our home. Our head did not feel exactly right, and the street began to rock from side to side, so that it was uncertain to us which side of the street we were on. So we crossed over, but found ourself on the same side that we were on before we crossed over. Indeed we imagined that we were on both sides at the same time, and several fast teams driving between. We met another boy who asked us why we looked so pale, and we told him we did not look pale, but that he was pale himself. We sat down under the bridge and began to reflect on the prospect of early decease, and on the uncertainty of all earthly expectations. We had determined to smoke the cigar all up and thus get the worth of our money, but were obliged to throw three-fourths of it away, yet knew just where we threw it in case we felt better the next day.

Getting home the old people were frightened, and demanded what kept us so late, and what was the matter with us. Not feeling that we were called to go into particulars, and not wishing to increase our parents' apprehension that we were going to turn out badly, we summed up the case with the statement that we felt miserable at the pit of the stomach. We had mustard plasters administered, and careful watching for some hours, when we fell asleep and forgot our disappointment and humiliation in being obliged to throw away three-fourths of our first cigar.—T. DeWitt Talmage, in Ladies' Home Journal.

Restored h's Wife's Health

My wife suffered for years from debility and a general breaking down of health, the results of diseases peculiar to women. A few bottles of Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) restored her to perfect health. It built here up, increased her appetite and weight, until she is now the picture of health. The speedy recovery of my wife from her long illness caused all my family, and several of my neighbors, to take S. S. S. As a tonic we are all delighted with it.

BABY CURED.

My baby had the worse case of Catarrh that I ever saw a small child affected with. The nasal discharge was very large and very offensive. Having some personal knowledge of the curative properties of S. S. S. I gave the baby a course of S. S. S., using nothing else. In a short time the discharge from the nose stopped, and the Catarrh was cured entirely and permanently, as there has been no return of it since.

Girls and the Stage.

I have had a great many letters from among my girls, asking me my opinion of their going on the stage. It becomes one of the most difficult to answer. There are good, honest, noble, God-fearing people on the stage; the theatre may be to the mass of people a great school for morals but to the one girl standing in the ranks waiting to work her way forward, it is a working ground where temptation is on every side. If she is strong enough to resist this, then let her go ahead. If she be one of the weaker sisters, then let her think many times before she puts herself in a position that will certainly entail a great deal of watchfulness and hard work.

The life of the actress is as full of hard work as is that of the girl who stands behind the counter or the one who is mistress of the telegraph key. Do not imagine that the gold glittering on the gown of the beautiful adventuress is a symbol of the golden life she leads, and do not believe that the simpering ingenue who wonders with a smile "how anybody ever does any work," is not just as full of study and absolute physical work as is that of most other women. She works till late at night, consequently she must sleep a little in the morning. She gets up then and goes to a long and tiresome rehearsal, then only has time to get a bite, and half-an-hour's sleep or reading before she starts again for the theatre. But you think there are others who do not work in this way. Yes, yes! But they are the ones that you do not want to imitate. Mrs. Kendal has said that for the woman who has some talent, and who is willing to work and wait, there is success on the stage, and it pays better than almost any other profession; but during the waiting years there must be a constant watch kept, so that scandal does not touch with its burning tongue the woman who is working for success.

So think it out well for yourself; conclude whether you not only have a heart to resolve, a head to contrive and a hard to execute but whether you really have the talent that must belong to the actress. The world is all a stage and the men and women merely players, but you may be cast for the happy wife and mother. So don't make the mistake, if you are a round peg, of getting into a square hole.—RUTH ASHMORE, in Ladies' Home Journal.

Every body knows scrofula to be a disease of the blood, and Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best remedy for all blood diseases.

Woman's Intuition.

NEARLY ALWAYS RIGHT IN HER JUDGMENT IN REGARD TO COMMON THINGS.

An old gentleman over seventy, came into the city from his farm, without his overcoat. The day turned chilly and he was obliged to forgo his visit to the fair.

To a friend who remonstrated with him for going away from home thus unprepared, he said: I thought it was going to be warm; my wife told me to take my overcoat, but I wouldn't. Women have more sense than men anyway."

A frank admission.

Women's good sense is said to come from intution; may it not be that they are more close observers of little things. One thing is certain, they are apt to strike the nail on the head, in all the ordinary problems of life, more frequently than the lords of creation.

"According to Dr. Alice Bennet, who recently read a paper on Bright's disease before the Pennsylvania State Medical Society, persons subject to billious attacks and sick headaches, who have crawling sensations, like the flowing of water in the head, who are 'tired all the time' and have unexplained attacks of sudden weakness, may well be suspected of dangerous tendencies in the direction of Bright's disease,"

The veteran newspaper correspondent, Joe Howard, of the New York Press, in noting this statement, suggests: "Possibly Alice is correct in her diagnosis, but why doesn't she give some idea of treatment? I know a man who has been 'tired all the time' for ten years. Night before last he took two doses of calomel and yesterday he wished he hadn't."

A proper answer is found in the following letter of Mrs. Davis, wife of Rev. Wm. J: Davis, of Basil, O., June 21st, 1890:

"I do not hesitate to say that I owe my life to Warner's Safe Cure. I had a constant hemorrhage from my kidneys for more than five months. The physicians could do nothing for me. My husband spent hundreds of dollars and I was not relieved. I was under the care of the most eminent medical men in the State. The hemorrhage ceased before I had taken one bottle of Safe cure. I can safely and do cheerfully recommend it to all who are sufferers of kidney troubles."

That Little Tickling.

In your throat, which makes you cough once in a while and keeps you constantly clearing your throat, arises from catarrh, and as catarrh is a constitutional disease the ordinary cough medicines all fail to hit the spot. What you need is a constitional remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla. Many people who have taken this medicine for scrofula, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, and other troubles, have been surprised that it should cure this troublesome cough. But to know the actual cause of the cough is to solve the mystery. Many cases of consumption can be traced back to the neglect of some such slight affection as this. Consumption can be controlled in its early stages, and the effect of Hood's Sarsaparilla in purifying the blood, building up the general health and expelling the scrofulous taint which is the cause of catarrh and consumption, has restored to perfect health, and expelling the scrofulous taint which is the case of catarrh and consumption, has restored to perfect health many persons on whom this dreaded disease seemed to have a firm hold.

California Tours via the Pennsylvania Railroad.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company, through its personally conducted tourist system, presents four winter and spring pleasure tours to California. The special trains conveying the parties will in each case, start from New York, and the dates of starting are as follows: Tour No. 1, February 7th, 1891; No. 2, March 3d; No. 3, March 26th; and No. 4, April 14th. The special train returning the first party will leave San Francisco for New York on March 11th; the second, April 3d; the third, April 24th; and the fourth, May 14th. Each tour will present a different route from the others as well as a different route going from that returning. Tour No. 1 will go South via Washington, Atlanta, and New Orleans, where a break of the journey will be made during the Mardi Gras festivities, thence via the Southern Pacific's Sunset Route and San Antonio to San Francisco, returning via Salt Lake City, Colorado Springs, Denver, and Chicago. Tour No. 2 will go West via St. Louis, Kansas City, and the Santa Fe route to San Francisco, returning via Salt Lake City, Colorado Springs, Denver, Council Bluffs, and Chicago. Tour No. 4 will go West via Chicago, Council Bluffs, Denver, Colorado Springs, and Salt Lake City to San Francisco, returning via Portland, Tacoma, Helena, St. Paul, and Chicago. On all tours breaks of the journey will occur at certain attractive points on the line both going and returning.

The parties will travel by a special train of Pullman Vestibule Drawing-room, Sleeping, Dining, Smoking, and Observation Cars, an exact counterpart of the celebrated Pennsylvania Limited in every particular. The train will be equipped with ladies' maids, a stenographer and type-writer, a barber-shop and bath-rooms for ladies' and gentlemen. It will present a through service to San Francisco, the like of which has never been enjoyed by any regular traveller.

The excursion rates, which include railway fare, a double berth, meals en route, hotel accommodations where a stop over necessitates, in both directions, side trips to San Diego, Riverside Passadena, Monterey, Santa Barbara, and San Jose, are $275.00 for the first, second and third tours, and $300.00 for the fourth. For other side trips through California special low rates will be made by the local railroads. Each party will be conducted by a Tourist Agent and a Chaperon, both experienced in their profession.

Itineraries presenting the full details of the tours are in course of preparation, and will be issued at an early day. In the meantime more detailed information may be secured by addressing Geo. W. Boyd, Asst. General Passenger Agent, Philadelphia, Pa.

Life is Misery.

To thousands of people who have the taint of scrofula in their blood. The agonies caused by the dreadful running sores and other manifestations of this disease are beyond description. There is no other remedy equal to Hood's Sarsaparilla for scrofula, salt rheum and every form of blood disease. It is reasonably sure to benefit all who give it a fair trial. Be sure to get Hood's.

SULPHUR BITTERS

The Best and Purest Medicine EVER MADE.

It will drive the Humor from your system, and make your skin clean and smooth. Those Pimples and Blotches which mar your beauty are caused by impure blood, and can be removed in a short time, if you are wise and use the great blood purifier,

SULPHUR BITTERS. Why suffer with Boils? Why rave with that terrible Headache? Why lay and toss on that bed of pain, with Rheumatism? What makes you tremble so?—Your nerves are all unstrung. Use a gentle soothing tonic to assist nature to repair the damage which your excesses have caused. Sulphur Bitters is not a cheap Rum or poor Whiskey drink to be taken by the glass, like other preparations which stimulate only TO DESTROY. If you have failed to receive any benefit from other medicines or doctors, do not despair. Use SULPHUR BITTERS. They will cure you where all others fail. No person can remain long sick who uses SULPHUR Bitters.

The Dose is small—only a teaspoonful. It is the best and cheapest medicine. Try it, and you will be satisfied. Get it of your Druggist. DON'T WAIT. GET IT AT ONCE.

If you are suffering from Kidney Disease, and wish to live to old age, use SULPHUR BITTERS. They never fail to cure.

A VOICE from Ohio. Here is a portrait of Mr. Garrison, of Salem, Ohio. He writes: "Was at work on a farm for $20 a month; I now have an agency for E. C. Allen & Co's albums and publications and often make $20 a day." (Signed) W. H. GARRISON.

William Kline, Harrisburg, Pa., writes: "I have never known anything to sell like your album. Yesterday I took orders enough to pay me over $25." W. J. Elmore, Bangor, Me., writes: "I take an order for your album at almost every house I visit. My profit is often as much as $20 for a single day's work." Others are doing quite as well; we have not space to give extracts from their letters. Every one who takes hold of this grand business piles up grand profits.

Shall we start YOU in this business, reader? Write to us and learn all about it for yourself. We are starting many; we will start you if you don't delay until another gets ahead of you in your part of the country. If you take hold you will be able to pick up gold fast. Read— On account of a forced manufacturer's sale 125,000 ten dollar Photograph Albums are to be sold to the people for $2 each. Bound in Royal Crimson Silk Velvet Plush. Charmingly decorated insides. Handsomest albums in the world. Largest Size. Greatest bargains ever known. Agents wanted. Liberal terms. Big money for agents. Any one can become a successful agent. Sells itself on sight—little or no talking necessary. Wherever shown, every one wants to purchase. Agents take thousands of orders with rapidity never before known. Great profits await every worker. Agents are making fortunes. Ladies make as much as men. You, reader, can do as well as any one. Full information and terms free, to those who write for same, with particulars and terms for our Family Bibles, Books and Periodicals. After you know all, should you conclude to go no further, why no harm is done.
